

THE HALLMARK
1988

MICHAEL KRAUS

Mr. Krawitz,

WHAT AM I GOING TO DO WITHOUT YOU?!? well, I suppose I'll survive, barely! Thank you very much for the best year of English I have had as of yet.
Your wit and lively behavior in class made it very worth my time, I will be out of one person that I have confided in all years. You had better send me a postcard from the canal boat!! I wish I was going!!! Remember all the fun we had in England & the pubs. Never forget the cracker eating or the manacles. Have a great time in your new job. Keep smiling & doin' that Jazz. Important don't forget
Sept. 18th

Love,

Lydia

THE HALLMARK 1988

MISS HALL'S SCHOOL
PITTSFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS

As we come to the end of our senior year, we would like to express our gratitude to him for his contributions over the past four years. As we graduate and move on, he too moves on to the next stage of his career at Miss Hall's. During his administration, his door has always been open. He has been supportive, judgmental, and given advice accordingly. Thank you to a generous man who has given us time, patience, encouragement, and kindness.

She is a woman who has gradually become more involved with the school over the past four years. She has made the atmosphere homey, making Miss Hall's a more comfortable place to live. She has strengthened our ties to the community through activities both on and off campus. Always gone unrecognized, she has been "the lady behind the scenes". We would like to take this opportunity to thank her for her thoughtfulness and her school spirit.

Together, Mr. and Mrs. Lee have helped in the development and growth of our school and student body. They have been an important factor contributing to the fulfillment of our high school years. Once we have left Miss Hall's, we will look back with fond memories, but remember "it's not goodbye, but merely see you later."

To all my friends-

After a while you learn that love doesn't mean leaning. That kisses are contracts and presents aren't promises . . . And you begin to accept defeats with your head up and your eyes open, with the grace of a woman, not the grief of a child. So you plant your own garden and decorate your own soul instead of waiting for someone to bring you flowers. And you learn that you can endure . . . That you really are strong and you really do have worth and that with every new day comes the dawn.

Special Cheers To The "Four Year Girls"

THE BRADY'S

Katie,

Go placidly amid the noise and the haste, And remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons.

Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even to the dull and the ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexatious to the spirit.

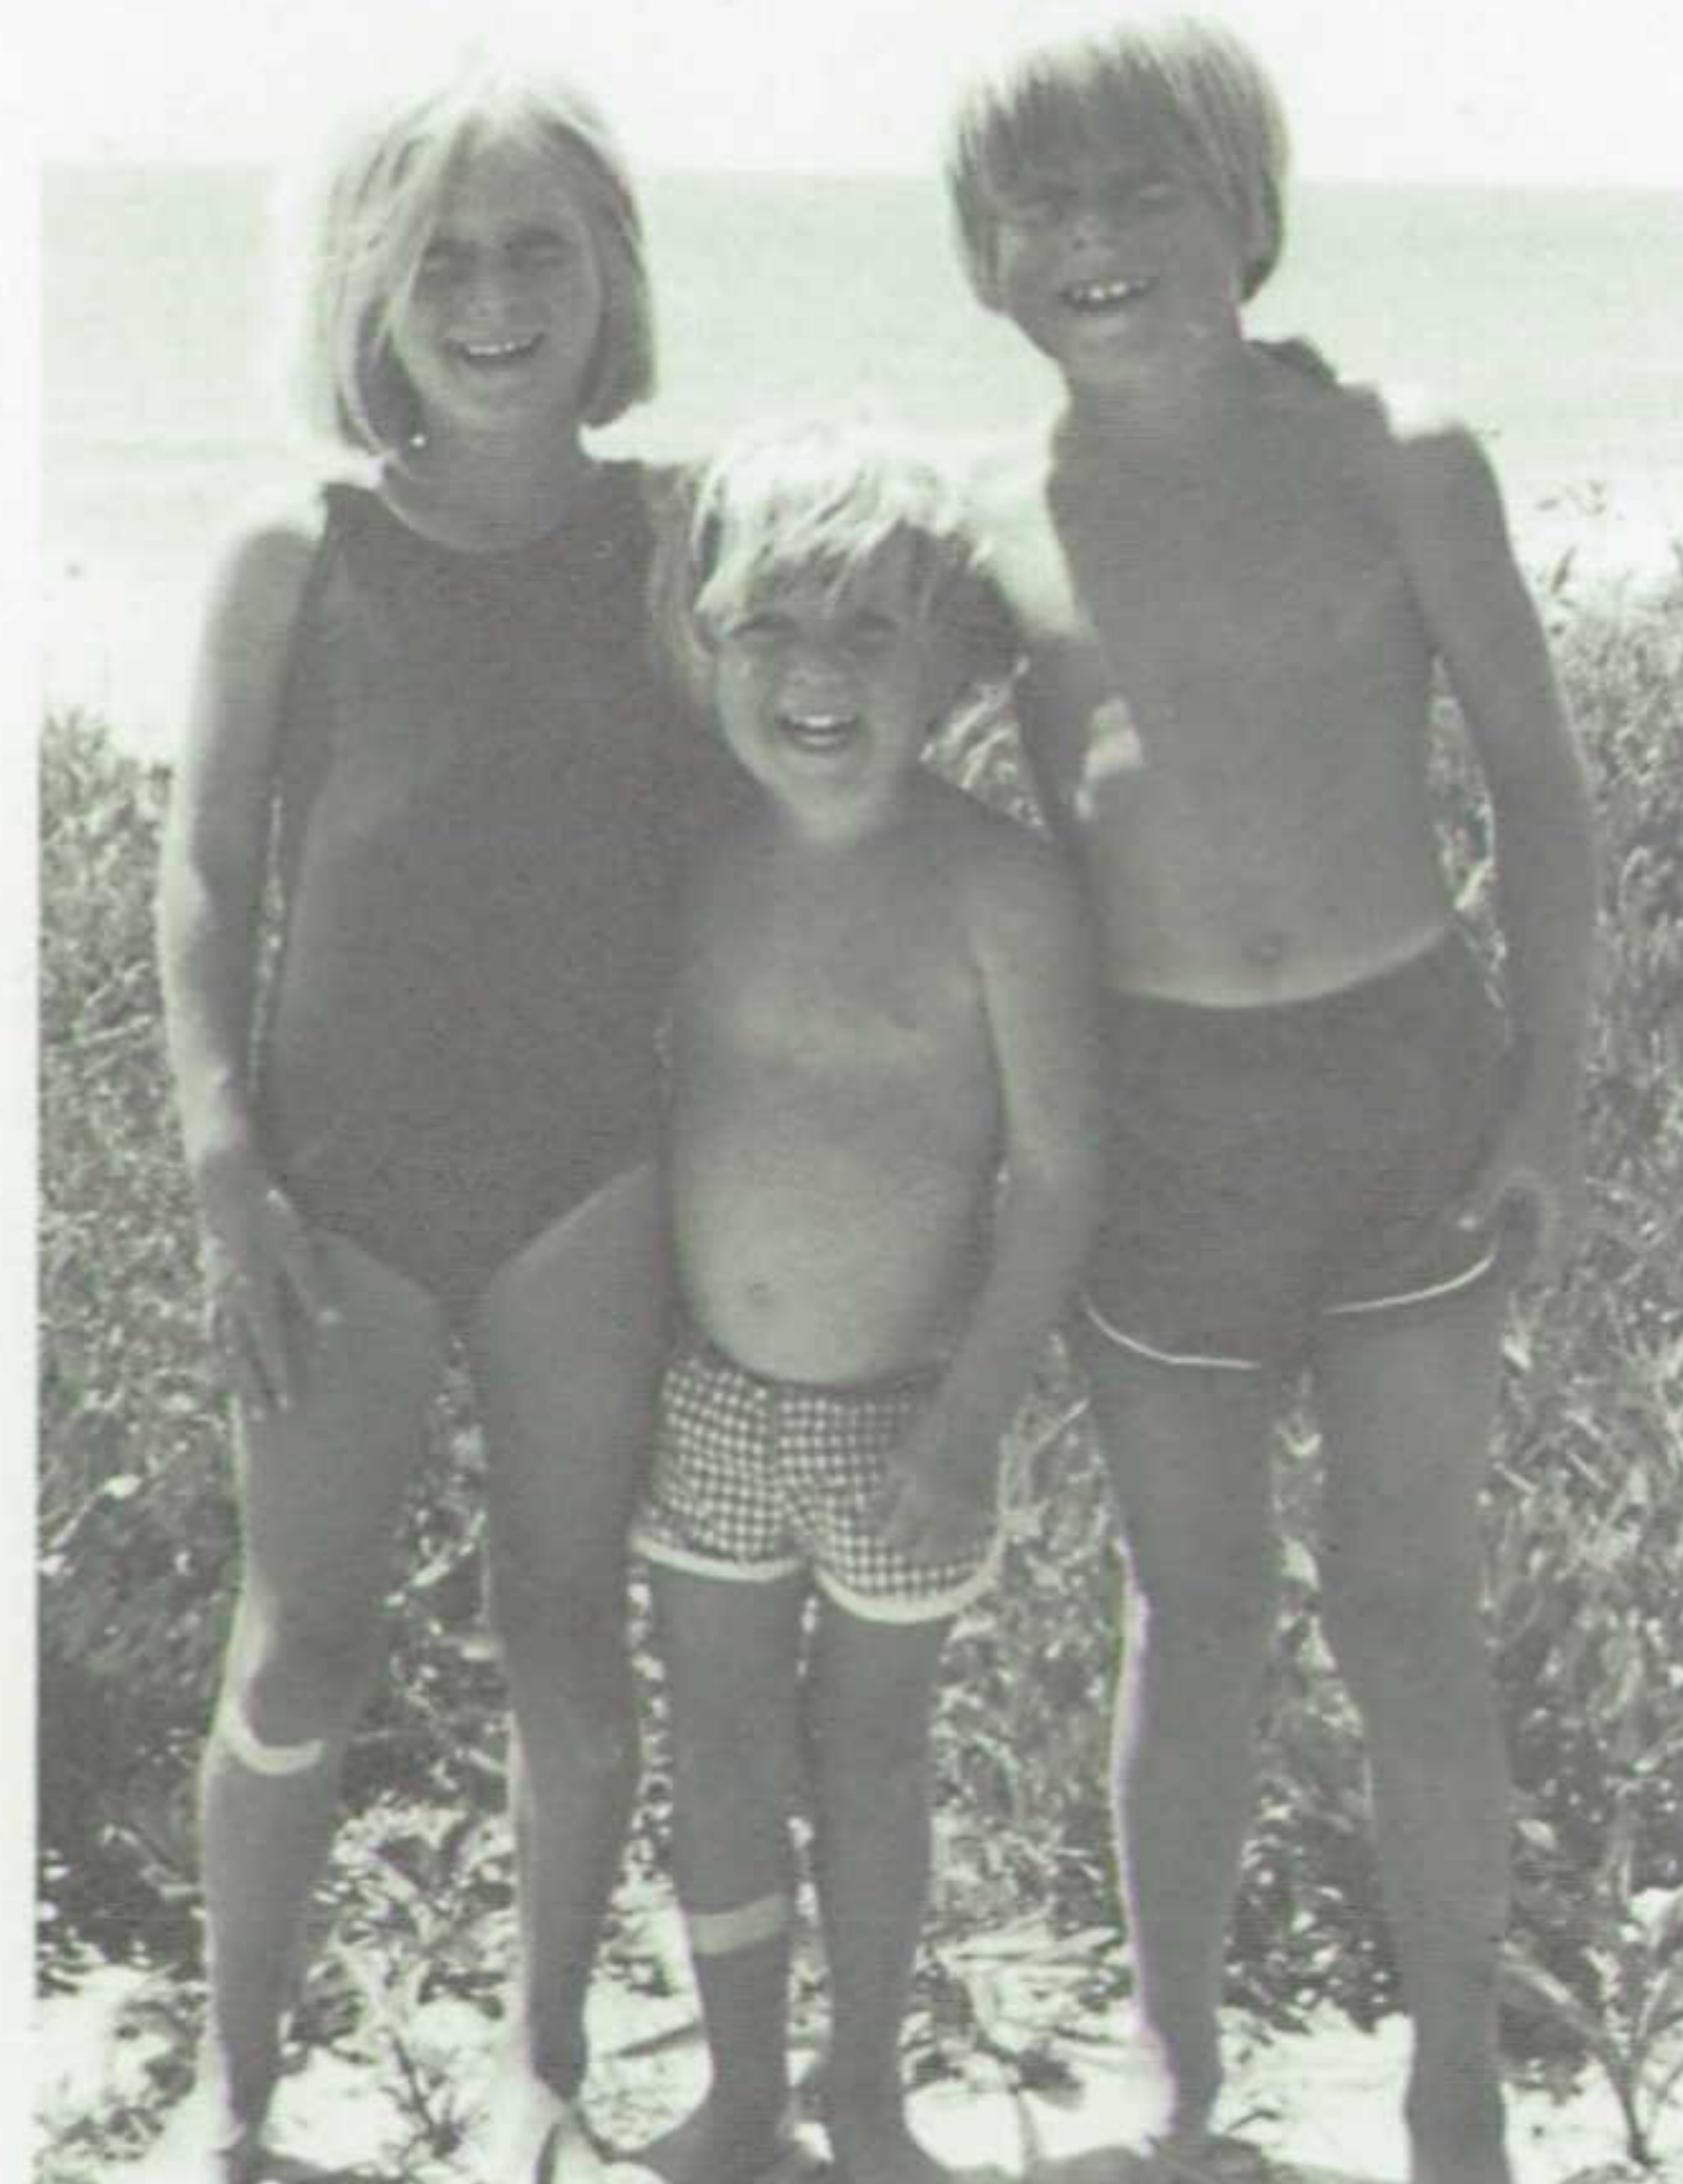

If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain or bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser than yourself.

Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs, for the world is full of trickery, but let not this blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is as perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of the spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune, but do not distress yourself with dark imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have the right to be here and whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive him to be. And whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace in your soul with all its shame, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be cheerful. Strive to be happy.

To My Friends in the Class of '88-

We laughed until we had to cry,
We loved right down till our last goodbye.
We were the best,
I think we'll ever be,
Just you and me for just a moment.

Time goes on, people touch and
Then they're gone,
But you and I will never really end,
We'll always be friends.

We laughed until we had to cry,
We loved right down till our last goodbye,
And through the tears
We'll smile when we recall
We had it all, for just a moment.

I love you!

Always,
Frankie
